

Name _____

Label Homework

Many children can “read” symbols/signs of familiar places (McDonald’s) and labels of products their families purchase regularly. Have your child show you the labels they can read at your house. Peel off or cut out the labels and attach them to this paper. Print the words, “I can read...” in front of the label. See the example below.

I can read

